II. LEGISLATIVE AFFAIRS: Our Legislative Committee met with our four General Assembly members and our state Senator, after the fall elections, to discuss the State PLO's. The Committee Chairman met with Congressman Robert Hurt (5th District) and reviewed the JLC approved National PLO's. Hurt is scheduled as the speaker for our January 2012 chapter luncheon.

We continue to advocate a Congressional review of the Veteran's Administration's delays in processing claims and other issues.

III. PUBLIC AFFAIRS. The DAILY PROGRESS published a picture of a Virginia Neurocare patient clutching the American flag, presented to the Grove House by the Chapter, as part of Veterans Day celebrations

Chapter members attended UVA Joint ROTC, POW/MIA commemoration, and dinner for Veterans and students.

Chapter President assisted in planning and execution Veterans Day mass at the St Thomas Aquinas Catholic Church.

IV. CHAPTER VITALITY AND LEVEL OF EXCELLENCE: Our primary strengths lie in our outstanding programs provided for members, continued leadership in the legislative area, and our increasing visibility in the Charlottesville area

V. MOST SIGNIFICANT CHAPTER EVENT The Chapter held its Veterans Day Observance at Ash Lawn-Highlands., the historic home of President James Monroe. The ceremony featured the well known James Monroe re-enactor., Dennis Bigelow as guest speaker. Special guest were wounded warriors from the Grove House program.
