

VCOC Newsletter Editor and 2nd VP
 Melva Mallison, Maj, USAF, Ret
 90 Huber Rd
 Newport News VA 23601

JUNE 2010 EDITION

The Council Crier

Virginia Council of Chapters (VCOC)
 Military Officers Association of America (MOAA)

See Table of Contents, below.

VCOC MEETING 8 JULY

PAGE	CONTENTS
1	President Column
2	Contacts & Reminders for quick reference Including Addresses of VCOC officers
3	Chapter Affairs
4	Walkway of Honor & Honor Flight
5	Congressional Appreciation Luncheon
6	Legislative – State: Priorities for 2011, Governor Signs Vet-Friendly Legislation, VCOC Award to Vince Burgess.
7	Membership (chapter & Give Me Ten), Martha Washington
8	Outside Cover, July Meeting at right. Directions below.

The Globe & Laurel is located only two miles south of the National Museum of the Marine Corps (open 9 to 5) and ½ mile from Quantico’s back gate. It is a smoke-free restaurant.

DIRECTIONS FROM I-95:

Take Exit 148 to U.S. Hwy. 1 and travel south for ½ mile. The Globe & Laurel is on the right.

Restaurant phone: (703) 221-5763

NEXT VCOC MEETING:

Thursday, 8 JULY 2010

10AM to 2 PM

(coffee & pastries available at 9:30 AM)

At The Globe & Laurel Restaurant
Quantico Corporate Center
3987 Jefferson Davis Hwy Stafford VA 22554

Attendance Notification due by end of June
 To VCOC Secretary & Treasurer

$18* (pay on site – make checks out to VCOC)

Covers morning refreshments & lunch (soup & sandwich)

Host Chapter: Heritage Virginia

(President: Col Jim Brown, USA, Ret)

- NO Legislative break-out session (Legislative Committee meets in June)
- Open Discussion will cover Public Affairs so bring your chapter person responsible for news releases to the media.. MOAA’s Marv Harris has been invited to lead the discussion.

More info, including agenda, will be available in the meetings section of VCOC website: VirginiaMOAA.com

projected info as of 15 May 2010*

/ Jim Rose, COL, USA, Ret, VCOC Secretary