2. Legislative Affairs

- a. Fourteen RAC-MOAA members attended the VCOC 2011 Congressional Luncheon.
- b. The chapter legislative committee met on a monthly basis to further develop and refine a slate of state legislative objectives for submission to the VCOC.
- c. The Chapter Legislative Chair (Col. Don Kaiserman) attended the JLC “Legislative Working Group” meetings held in April and May 2011.

3. Public Affairs The Public Affairs Program established in early 2010 has been expended to reach eleven media outlets. Structured media news releases have been developed and will be utilized as appropriate.

4. Chapter Vitality & Levels of Excellence

- Self-evaluation. Evaluation was conducted in March 2010. Chapter has an aggressive program seeking new members and is actively trying to reduce the number of members who are not national MOAA members.
- Levels of Excellence. The Chapter submitted a nomination package for its ninth-consecutive Five-Star Levels of Excellence Award.

5. Most Significant Chapter Events of the Quarter

- The Chapter supported over 30 ROTC and JROTC awards programs (medals and certificates) and awarded two $1,000 scholarships to JROTC graduates. All awards were personally presented by members of RAC-MOAA.
- The Chapter had two outstanding meetings. A joint “Law & Order” meeting with the Richmond Chapter of MOWW, featuring Virginia’s Secretary for Veterans Affairs and Commonwealth Preparedness, the Honorable Terrie L. Suit, and a second meeting featuring the MG Daniel E. Long Jr., the Adjutant General of Virginia.
