II. Legislative Affairs: Our legislative team hosted Congressman Bob Goodlatte here in Lexington on 22 August for an in-depth discussion of MOAA and VCOC issues. In a private and casual setting, members of our chapter were joined by two representatives of the Central Shenandoah chapter in an earnest discussion of key issues. As Goodlatte said, “he was here to listen.” He did say that he champions the military, and that we are on the top of his agenda. It was a hugely successful initiative, and we are planning similar meetings with state legislators Creigh Deeds and Ben Cline.

III. Public Affairs: Public Relations activity for this quarter centered on the Marshall Chapter's sponsorship of our second annual golf tournament in support of the Virginia Wounded Warrior program. Although final results are not in, we anticipate that we will present $12,500 to Paul Galanti and Jack Hilgers from DVS and Cathy Wilson of the VAWWP at our December chapter meeting. Galanti will also swear in our new officers. This event received local media attention. The meeting with Bob Goodlatte mentioned above also received good media attention, with captioned photos in both local papers (Rockbridge Weekly and Lexington News Gazette).

IV. Chapter Vitality & Levels of Excellence:

a. Self-evaluation Status: Evaluation conducted in March 2011- score 63 (Outstanding). Chapter does have a P.O. Box.

b. Levels of Excellence Status: Notified of selection for Five-Star chapter for the fifth consecutive year, and looking forward to presentation of our streamer.

V. Most Significant Chapter Event of the Quarter: Clearly our most significant events were the golf tournament and the meeting with Congressman Goodlatte as outlined above.
