V. Most Significant Events of the Quarter. Chapter Meetings.

A. October - Not reported in Sep but the chapter hosted a chapter booth at the Shenandoah Valley Fair in Woodstock from 10 AM to 5 PM providing membership and personal affairs information provided by MOAA National. No other MOAA chapters were present, Oct Luncheon was held in l'Italia restaurant with guest speaker Lt Col Richard M. Doezema, USMC, Ret who related his MC experience in helping him begin a second career in farming.

B. November - Presented a $500 scholarship to a JROTC cadet, Rosa Ridriquez for her outstanding academic and ROTC achievement at Harrisonburg HS. Also produced and distributed posters at poll stations and local stores urging voters to support the Constitutional amendment for real estate tax relief for 100% disableveteransns. Also held chapter elections for chapter officers and Board members and started a scholarship fund driving effort for funds for 2011 cadets..Our luncheon speaker was one of our own, MAJ Mike Foster, USA, Ret, who spoke on hi experiences in Vietnam and his current employment with Dynamic Aviation and its economic affect on the local community.

C. Our meeting was a social function held at the Waynesboro Country Club including a silent auction as a scholarship fund raiser. A recruiting effort resulted in two new chapter members and enthusiastic visitors leading to a great social gathering.
