II. LEGISLATIVE AFFAIRS: Our Legislative Chairman, Dr Bill Tunner has been in contact with 5th District, newly elected Representative Hurt, to encourage his participation on the Veterans Affairs Committee. We anticipate inviting congressman Hurt to address one of our Chapter meetings in the near future. Our legislative committee is preparing a position paper on oversights of veteran's issues with regards to quality of care within some of the Veterans Hospitals in Virginia .

III. PUBLIC AFFAIRS: Our Chapter President had a half-hour interview 8 November on the Rod Schilling's talk-radio show to promote the chapters Veterans Day Observance at Ash-Lawn Highlands, home of President James Monroe. Later chapter member Mike Zbaily appeared on the same radio show, to discuss veteran's issues and perspectives.

IV. CHAPTER VITALITY AND LEVEL OF EXCELLANCE; CVC is pleased with the positive responses to the areas of improvement, previously reported, under this category. Overall, CVC has experienced a gratifying year with positive feedback in all areas of concentration.

V. MOST SIGNIFICANT CHAPTER EVENT: Veterans Day at Ash-Lawn Highlands. On the eleventh hour of the eleventh day of November, the Chapter was once again privileged to conduct the annual Veterans Day observance at the home of President James Monroe. Our chapter president introduced the program, followed by the President Monroe re-enactor, Mr. Dennis Bigelow. Virginia 's former Governor, the Honorable Gerald L. Baliles delivered a very inspirational commemorative address. The event was supported by a special ROTC honor guard from the University of Virginia . Approximately 100 people attended this ceremony, including seven special guests, military patients from Grove House (Virginia NeuroCare).
