IV. Chapter Vitality & Levels of Excellence:

a. Self-evaluation Status: 56 (Excellent). Chapter officers and committee chairmen are evaluating chapter activities using the MOAA Chapters Self-Evaluation Checklist. Current status continues to be assessed. Action initiated to establish a scholarship program for four supported JROTC programs via end-of-year tax-free contributions from Chapter members.

b. Levels of Excellence Status: Chapter officers and committee chairmen are evaluating chapter activities using the MOAA Levels of Excellence Award Scoring Criteria. Current status is being assessed with follow-on actions to be determined.

V. Most Significant Chapter Event of the Quarter: Over 80 attendees, including members and spouses and special guests, enjoyed our December social at the Heritage Hunt Clubhouse. The focus of the event was a celebration of the Christmas season with song provided by the Heritage Hunt Women of Note, great food and abundant friendship. A trio of US Marines were on hand as special guests and to accept toys for the US Marines “Toys for Tots” program from all attendees. In addition, recently elected Board Officers and Directors were installed as part of the formal activities during the social.
