Give Me 10!: 191 free members recruited (most were students not added to chapter; 5 are permanent party and added to chapter); ten (10) new paid members recruited at Fort Lee or off the MOAA lists for lapsed members.

- 2. Legislative Affairs: COL (R) Albert Pianalto and Gary Metzinger conducted office calls with all eleven (11) Virginia Assembly members in our area of responsibility region during the month of December to discuss the Joint Leadership Council (JLC) objectives for the upcoming January 2011 Virginia Assembly session. They provided a written report to VCOC and also attended the quarterly Legislative Committee meeting.
- 3. Public Affairs:
 - A sponsorship booth was set up at the “Run for the Fallen” event on Fort Lee with MOAA brochures and Virginia Wounded Warrior information passed out to participants.
 - A press release and picture of the Southside Chapter election of board officers was published in the local newspaper for the region.
- 4. Chapter Vitality & Levels of Excellence:
 - a. Self-evaluation score for Quarter: 60(Excellent). We have recruited an Auxiliary Liaison representative. Mrs. Frances Kovacic, spouse of chapter member COL (ret) Joseph Kovacic, who is also a member of the Fort Lee military wives club has agreed to represent us on all such matters.
 - b. Levels of Excellence Status: Preparing to submit for the next competition.
- 5. Most Significant Chapter Event of the Quarter: The biennial election of chapter officers was conducted at the annual meeting on 4 Dec 2010. The VCOC President, COL Sam Wilder, administered the oath of office and the representatives from the “Honor Flight” foundation conducted a presentation and display. COL Revilla is the re-elected chapter president (fourth term) and will serve as the chapter representative to VCOC.
